Hari Raya Puasa celebrates the conclusion of the 30-days of dawn-to-sunset fasting during the month of Ramadan. In Indonesia, is called “Buka Puasa” which means to “open the fast”. In Malaysia, is better known as “Berbuka Puasa”. This is an evening meal when Muslims end their daily Ramadan fast at sunset.

During the fasting month, our Singapore team went on a road trip to invite our Muslim colleagues from various offices - Johor Bahru, Pengerang, Terengganu, Kuala Lumpur, Batam and Jakarta - to break fast together. And to go with the tradition, we prepared sweet snacks as door gift at every dinner.

Our sweet gesture is a small way to express our deep appreciation to our Muslim staff. In Aver Asia, we treasure a diversified workforce.

As the holiday draws near, we will like all our Muslim colleagues a happy “Balik Kampung” as they return to their home town to celebrate with their families and to ask for forgiveness from elders.
